Our Leadership

Naren Shaam

CEO AND FOUNDER

Naren, a Bangalore-born and US-raised traveller, stepped off a plane in Europe in search of adventure. Ready for his journey to begin, he asked himself a simple question: how do I get from Paris to Amsterdam? And how can I do it on my phone within two clicks? As a result of finding this a challenge, he founded Omio in Berlin in 2013.

Naren holds an MBA from Harvard and previously worked in the financial and automotive industries in the United States.

Jean-Bernard Moens

CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Prior to joining Omio, Jean-Bernard (JB) worked at King, where he ran the business operations and finance teams, and co-founded McKinsey Solutions. He loves travel so much he has a private pilot's licence.

Tomas Vocetka

CHIEF TECHNICAL OFFICER

Tomas believes travel is key to keeping the world connected. He joined Omio in 2017 as the VP of Engineering. Before Omio, he worked for Microsoft and Hewlett-Packard and founded a number of other companies.

Dr Barbara Zesik

CHIEF PEOPLE OFFICER

Barbara has spent her entire career working at leading technology companies. She started at Hewlett-Packard before moving on to people roles at Dell, Motorola and Yell.

Facundo Viguie Aleman

CHIEF MARKETING OFFICER

Facundo is a marketing pro, who has a strong track record of building marketing strategies and executing at all levels of the funnel, having worked for Rocket Internet and HelloFresh.
